Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

I rarely make long distance calls, so I don't want to pay the same universal service fund burden as a high-volume residential or business customers. This is unfair!

I use my wireless phone for safety, security and convenience. I don't want to lose these benefits so that big businesses can pay less than their fair share. I urge you to reject the proposal to move the USF collection system to a flat-fee.

Sincerely,

Russell Yashinsky
